OFFICE OF FAITH-BASED AND COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

MITCHELL E. DANIELS, JR., GOVERNOR
PAULA PARKER-SAWYERS, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Recalled Frozen Pot Pies

ConAgra Foods has recently issued a voluntary recall of its pot pies, and state health officials want to urge Indiana residents to properly dispose of Banquet and generic store brand frozen not-ready-to-eat pot pie products with "P-9" or "Est. 1059" printed on the side of the package.

The following brands and all varieties, including chicken, turkey and beef, of frozen pot pie products are subject to the recall: Banquet; Albertson's; Food Lion; Great Value; Hill Country Fare; Kirkwood; Kroger; Meijer; Western Family.

Don't forget...registering early for the White House Regional Conference on Faith-Based and Community Initiatives is the only way to ensure you will be able to attend!
Currently there are over 700 registered!

White House Regional Conference on Faith-Based and Community Initiatives
Monday, November 5 (8AM – 5PM) & Tuesday, November 6 (8AM – 5 PM)
Indianapolis Marriot Downtown, 350 West Maryland Street, Indianapolis, IN

The White House and the Departments of Justice, Agriculture, Labor, Health & Human Services, Housing & Urban Development, Education, Homeland Security, Commerce, Veterans' Affairs, the Small Business Administration, and the Agency for International Development along with the State of Indiana will host a conference in Indianapolis to help faith-based and community organizations learn more about President Bush's Faith-Based and Community Initiative.

The conference is free, but pre-registration is required. Registration is on a first-come, first-serve basis. Visit www.fbc.gov to register online. The conference is part of a series of regional events the White House is hosting to support the work of effective social service organizations.

For more information, call 202-456-6708, send an email to fbc@dtihq.com, or visit www.fbc.gov.

The LEAGUE combines service, learning, and friendly “co-opetition” with live, interactive events. From planting trees to collecting food for the hungry, kids are returning millions of dollars worth of value back to the community. We believe once people are inspired and once they are given the opportunity, change happens. The infrastructure for change is in place. The tools are now available. A movement of good is happening. As individuals, we may be humble about our contributions but we are glad to shine a spotlight on others as wonderful examples. Visit www.theleague.org to learn more and to check out their new website.

Lights On Afterschool is celebrated nationwide to call attention to the importance of afterschool programs for America's children, families and communities. In America today, 1 in 4 youth -- 14.3 million children -- are alone and unsupervised after school. Afterschool programs keep kids safe, help working families and inspire learning. They provide opportunities to help young people develop into successful adults. Lights On Afterschool is a project of the Afterschool Alliance, a nonprofit organization dedicated to ensuring that all children have access to quality, affordable afterschool programs.
